

5X
"Whoso stops his ears at the cry of the poor, he also shall cry himself, but shall not be heard."

AUG. 9, 1992

Phil Beatty, Sharon Beatty,

I believe that I left an original copy of my doctrinal paper on the Judgments of Yahweh with you last winter when Shirley & I came up to visit you and counsel. If you can manage it, please send one of them back. Thanks.

It seems it is difficult for you to grasp why Todd Derstine says and does the things he does. Number one you put his common-law relationship involving very deeply felt love and commitment on the same parr with the hiring of a harlot by some sailor boy. "It's all fornication," I can hear you and Garver declare. But where are the Biblical definition verses for showing what exactly Yahweh considers to be porneia. I'll help you out, Phil, your best verse would be Gen. 34:7--"which thing ought not to be done." Indications, however, are that Shechem may have used physical coercion. Even if he didn't, Jacob sanctioned the marital agreement sending Dinah to Shechem's house to be his wife, which agreement involved the circumcising of all of Hamor's males. Levi and Simeon treacherously broke Israel's word and agreement, and slew all their men.

Gen. 34, 38 → You have also chosen to crucify me and condemn and label me, just like 8:39:8-9 also Simeon and Levi. It is evident from Gen. 26:5 and Gen. 18:19 that the patriarchs were fully conversant with the Judgments* later codified by Moses. Jacob's willingness to comply with Shechem's wishes also indicates awareness of Ex. 22:16* and Deut. 22:29-30, as well as a spirit of mercy. In contrast, the church rarely reflects an understanding attitude towards the man when so-called "pre-marital sex" occurs.

The father has no less right to be with the child than the mother. The 4th Comm. itself and the dozens of instances where it says the woman bore her children unto the man, the begetter, as an act of giving, shows that the children were the domain of the father, not the mother. The latter-day church shows absolutely no concern over rectifying this dichotomy. Paul said he did not "suffer", ie. allow, a woman to usurp authority over a man, period. Too bad that's just an archaic, outdated, cultural nicety of the Jews to you.

How grievous it is to Yahweh that you deny a man his simplest right, the right to a hearing before a group of elders. Barring that, you proceed to talk abusively in a way uncharacteristic of the way you would approach any other elder, your wife, or even your children. The fact, Phil, that YOU WOULD NEVER HAVE DENIED YOUR OWN SON OR DAUGHTER SUCH A HEARING FOR THE SAKE OF PRESERVING THEIR PARENTHOOD, THEIR FEELINGS, OR THEIR FAMILY, SHOWS HOW UTTERLY PARTIAL YOU ARE IN YOUR TREATMENT OF THOSE WHOSE DOCTRINE IS TOO STRICT FOR YOUR STOMACH. Yahweh pleads the cause of the fatherless, and brings the solitary into families (Ps. 68), and gives His servants the ministry of reconciliation. You seem incapable of either of those in this instance. My perception is that it all has to do with unacknowledged enmity for the Torah of Yahweh (the vast majority of the elders at Turner Camp Mtg. share in that enmity for Yahweh's statutes and judgments, and it shows in a lack of ability to exercise judgment, due process, and to love others as themselves.) By the way, Shirley herself thought it ridiculous that you would accuse my heart of being selfish for insisting on a hearing before the elders of the church, esp. considering the fact that my reputation and shame were all laid on the line.

The statutes and judgments are nothing to trifle with. Among them are "Love thy neighbor as thyself." This is not fulfilled when a young man entices a maid, takes her virginity, accepts and stirs up her feelings of love, conceives a child, and then decides to run off and bastardize the child and be irresponsible for his actions. But in this case Shirley has done all of the above, full-well knowing that her boyfriend was dead serious about marriage all along. It was Shirley who requested that I put my penis next to her that morning of Nov. 10th, though there was NO intercourse; albeit it was my prayers and faith that earnestly prevailed with Yahweh to materialize the unlikely conception, which Shirley called a miracle as late as March. You are condoning a course of action in the woman ← that you would be hard-pressed to condone in a man. This proves to me your inconsistency and lack of judgment, which is rooted in your rejection of the O.T.

If you Pentecostal 7th Day elders had genuine integrity and honesty, you would simply come right out in the pulpit and tell the people that you disbelieve in the Hebrew scriptures. One cannot nail the statutes, judgments, holy days, land sabbaths, and jubilee to the cross and then pretend to believe in the O.T. prophets. Such "partialness in the law"(Mal. 2:9)--the arbitrary picking and choosing of only those principles which are convenient to the end-time church--will be shown some day to be tantamount to carving up the body and spilling of the blood of Yahoshua Himself, AFRESH, because He is the Word of Elohim, He breathed the Word into each of the prophets themselves. You, Phil, serve a fickle, double-minded god, who has His Apostles contradicting His prophets, and negating and rescinding the legislation of the perfect law of liberty--the Torah of Yahweh.

Your profession and homiletical skills are like a very ornate mansion built atop a foundation of miry clay. Your wickedness will be openly shown before the congregation. The Spirit has shown to me the root of your bitterness. It is nothing less than COVETOUSNESS, a sin connected to idolatry by Paul, and to stubbornness.

Your father is partly to blame for that temptation by turning the inheritance over to your mother, instead ^{of} to the sons. This has left you chomping at the bit, anxious to obtain your rightful due, which Yahweh's law would have already conferred upon you had your father understood how to set up his estate Biblically.

Mrs. Beatty is 94 → It is obvious to me from every vibe I've been able to pick up from you when I'm around you and your mother, that you secretly wish she wouldn't hang on so long, so you could get your hands on your father's money. Covetousness shows itself in your mother's purchasing of lottery tickets as a means of enlarging the already sizeable estate, and your condoning of the same. I have little doubt that you also purchase the lottery, and see little if anything wrong with such trying to get something for nothing. Finally, your impatience in being able to obtain your birthright (withheld and delayed because of your rejection of the law and Name of Almighty Yahweh), and the resulting covetousness, is confirmed by the lack of Yahweh's ability to bless the labour of your hands, ie. your plumbing business, in marked contrast to the other sabbatarian contractors I know of in your area.

I urge in the Name of Yahoshua to repent of this your wickedness, and pray that He might convict you of sin and of righteousness, and forgive you for the thoughts of your heart. Until you accept the statutes and judgments and the Name and Holy Days of Yahweh, which all the Apostles maintained and kept and honored, you have neither part nor lot in their successors, who are intent on "restoring all things," and getting back to the faith once delivered.

You are partaking in other mens' sins (incl. Shirley's), and other 1st day churches' sins, by not reproofing the works of darkness and idolatry that they indulge in. In short, I'm convinced you are in the bond of adikia (injustice, iniquity (see Acts 8:23)).

Shirley's other pastor/counselor

Already Yahweh has begun to withdraw his blessing from Roy Henderson's overseership. A 5-year old child of one of the member families there drowned and died in a coma recently. This was just a warning confirmation of my stern letter to him--to change his counsel, repent of his partiality and hypocrisy, or face shame and removal from his lofty perch. I shudder to think what will be the nature of his and your imminent demise. As I told him, I now tell you, my faith is dangerous to your complacency and the status and material well-being that you two trust in. Yahweh is withdrawing the efficacy of the covering and headship you once provided, at His mercy. The time has come for Judgment to fall on the leadership of the houses of Yahweh. "They that handle the Word knew Me not." "Thru deceit they refuse to know Me." You have had the unfortunate prospect of running into a fool for Christ's Namesake, and His causes. A man with the love of a mother for her newborn, the rage of a she-bear bereft of her whelps. I give my grief and my rage daily to Yahshua. Of that fact you can all thank your lucky stars. But those emotions are still "out there" in the cosmos. It is a mere matter of time til Yahweh Himself acts on them, because His justice always demands a verdict and a fulfillment. You ministers are all standing on the wrong side of that line of justice, foolhardedly thinking that I'm getting my just desserts. Why even Cain fared better than I, at the direct hands of Yahweh's justice, even though He had murdered his own brother Abel. How is it Yahweh continued to honor and maintain his office as husband and father over his children, but you would leave me with nothing in the way of headship and authority? And from the start my motive was merely to see Shirley held accountable for Exod. 22:16, for loving her neighbor and her child as herself, and in order to see the love of Yahweh's law fulfilled. I stood on Tamar's example in Gen. 38, who by faith wrought righteousness and obtained the scepter promise for her two sons, who were the fathers of the royal messianic dynasties that ruled Europe and Scandanavia for Millenia, and which led to all the righteous kings of the House of Judah, incl. Yahshua Himself. She reached out to claim the unfulfilled promise of her father-in-law Judah, and the right of lovingly preserving her dead husband's name thru the Levirate law. She would have been allowed to go and spit in his face for not following thru in not being willing to build up his son's house.

You loveless ministers have shown no concern for the building up of my house or my name (the child will not even bear my name). Every wise woman builds up her house, but the foolish (Shirley) plucks it down with her own hands, even before it has had a chance to flourish and be tested. Paul commands the younger women to MARRY, bear children, be keepers at home. The Biblical common law of Yahweh in Exod. 22:16 binds Shirley in heaven to me as her common-law husband. I spit in your face and shake the very dust of my feet off against you, every one of you, for failing to endorse these commands, for condoning Murphy Brown and deliberate bastardhood. You deserve Geo. Bush and the papacy (even the Pope and Dan Quayle are more righteous than you) and their imminent New World Order. You will be imprisoned and forced to walk naked before your enemies for your folly. Then and only then will Yahweh's vengeance be satisfied.

In Yahoshua's Holy Name,

Philip T. Derstine