

D. POWER TO SECURE INSURANCE

The Trustee(s) shall have the power, and at their discretion, may secure various forms of insurance which may include, but shall not be limited to: casualty, accident, fire, property, general liability, title, travel, vehicle, general life, key man life, and patent. Such insurance may be obtained to secure those persons in the event of loss of life, health or any incapacitation, whether Trustee, Beneficiary, or any others; or to secure any specific or general category of Trust assets in the event of loss or destruction by theft, fire, accident, natural disaster, or any other act or omission which would result in a damage or adverse effect to the Trust corpus.

E. POWER OF APPOINTMENT

The Board Of Trustees may, by resolution of a majority of its members, appoint or otherwise retain executives, officers, administrators, or agents to pursue the ordinary course of business of the Trust anytime it is deemed prudent or advantageous to do so. Said executives, officers, administrators, or agents of the Trust shall be strictly limited to the scope of duties set forth by written resolution of the Board Of Trustees. Said authorizing resolution shall specify the capacity in which the executives, officers, administrators, or agents must execute obligations of the Trust. The Trustee(s) may authorize compensation, plus the reimbursement of expenses, an expense account, or an advance against expenses incurred.

Any executive, officer, administrator, or agent may be terminated at the will of the Board Of Trustees, with or without cause. In the event that any executive, officer, administrator, or agent is ordered, or otherwise compelled, by any court or agency of any government, to take any action which the Trustee(s) would ordinarily consider to be adverse to the Trust, said person shall immediately notify the Board Of Trustees of such legal action. Furthermore, that executive, officer, administrator, or agent shall be treated by the Trust as though they had been terminated, and such termination shall be immediate, automatic, and self-executing, with no action necessary on the part of the Trustee(s).

F. POWER TO RETAIN PROFESSIONAL SERVICES

The Trustee(s) may, in their discretion, contract with and retain the services and professional counsel of competent advisors, regarding the legal and financial affairs of the Trust. All such expenses incurred shall be paid out of the funds of the Trust.

XIV. NOTICE TO THIRD PARTIES:

A. CONFIDENTIALITY

This Trust is a private Trust, not a public Trust. Its business, management, administration, and assets are to be held by those privy to such information in strict confidentiality. The Trust's affairs, papers, records, holdings and all other aspects of the Trust, being of paramount importance, no Trustee, executive, officer, administrator, agent, independent contractor, nor any other person standing in any relationship whatsoever to the Trust shall disclose, divulge, or otherwise convey any information whatsoever about the Trust, or its affairs, to any person, entity, government agency or court without the express written permission of the Board Of Trustees. Any information confided about the Trust to third-parties will be disclosed on a strictly "need-to-know" basis, revealing only such information as in the Trustee(s) discretion is deemed necessary in order to carry out the affairs of the Trust. In such cases, the Trustee(s) is authorized to secure a "Confidentiality & Non-Disclosure Agreement" from any party
